SCOTTISH ALE MALT

Celebrate our malting heritage with Scottish Ale Malt, a reflection of our enduring connection to Scotland. This malt, sown, grown, and malted exclusively in Scotland, is a true embodiment of provenance. Tailored for the craft brewer in search of a light-coloured base malt suitable for both lagers and ales, the barley for our Scottish Ale Malt thrives in the fertile fields of Scotland, known for producing exceptional two-row spring barley. Paying homage to the landscape and the dedicated stewards of premium barley, this malt amplifies the Scottish provenance in every brew. Whether you're creating lagers or light ales, our malt brings an unmatched Scottish essence to your beers. With over two centuries as maltsters, we're proud to present this quality malt, celebrating the unique character of our growers and the superior barley they cultivate, from field to firkin.
